GOOD WORK.
Done Daily in Ogden. Many Citizens Tell of It.

Nearly every reader has heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their good work in Ogden still continues, and our citizens are constantly adding endorsement by public testimony. No better proof of merit can be had than the experience of friends and neighbors. Read this case:

John Rothwell, 2966 Adams avenue, Ogden, Utah, says:

"My kidneys were disordered for several years and their secretions passed so frequently that I was obliged to arise at night. If I caught cold, it was sure to settle on my kidneys and make me feel worse. When I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills, I decided to try them and procured a supply. They proved to be just the remedy I needed and acted so satisfactorily in every way that I have often recommended them since then. I have often heard other people speak in the highest terms of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Liburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

HOODLUMS THROW TOBACCO AT AUTO

Their apparent aversion of the automobile and of those who are fortunate enough to be able to ride in one, got three young men of Riverdale into trouble last evening when they threw tobacco at the auto.

Pinigree, manager of the Ogden Furniture and Carpet company, caused the arrest of Arathion Bingham, aged 22 years; Ernest Stimpson, aged 19, and Victor Roman, aged 18.

Mr. Pinigree and his family were riding along the Riverdale road about 8 o'clock last evening when they passed the young men, who were in a hurry, coming toward this city.

As the machine went around the bumpy young men, according to Mr. Pinigree's story, took quids of tobacco from their mouths and threw them at the auto.

The auto driver stopped at the first

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES CALLED FOR OCT. 10TH.

The Regular Republican Executive Committee Last Night Adopts the Recommendations of the Progressive Republicans and Calls a Primary at Which the People Will Vote Direct for Their Choice—No Convention of Delegates—Now the People Shall Rule—Abraham Lincoln Republicanism Brought to Life Again.

The regular Republican organization has adopted the recommendation of the Progressive Republicans, as requested by the latter at the court house meeting last Thursday evening. The convention with its delegates is a thing of the past. From now on the grand old Republican party of Ogden will be ruled by the rank and file—by the people themselves. This is such a great step in favor of the popular government movement that the Progressive Republican of Ogden will gasp for breath when he reads the resolutions adopted last evening by the executive committee of the Republicans of Ogden. The office of the chairman, Geo. J. Kelly, was filled to the doors, and there was rejoicing and applause as one after the other of the old war horses arrived. Captain Holmquist was the last to arrive and it was necessary to move the chairs closer to make room for him, and then the business began.

Talk about Progressive ideas. If Senator La Follette could have heard the Ogden Republicans last night he would have been at home. When all had expressed themselves the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

First, that a Republican primary convention be held on Tuesday, October 10, 1911, between the hours of 4 and 9 p. m., and that the said primaries be held at one place in each ward and that the chairman shall appoint three Republicans to act as judges and one to act as clerk for each of said wards, under rules and regulations to be prepared by the chairman of the city central committee.

Second, that any Republican desiring to become a candidate for the office of mayor, commissioner, auditor or municipal judge before said Republican primary may file a written application to have his name placed on the ticket, and others to the number of 25 may petition in writing that the name of any Republican, with his acceptance, shall be placed on the ticket.

Third, that the chairman of the city central committee shall be authorized to publish a list of the names of the candidates for each office, and that the same shall be published in the Ogden Standard.

Fourth, that the chairman of the city central committee shall be authorized to

Fifth, that the chairman of the city central committee shall be authorized to

Sixth, that the chairman of the city central committee shall be authorized to

Seventh, that the chairman of the city central committee shall be authorized to

Eighth, that the chairman of the city central committee shall be authorized to

Ninth, that the chairman of the city central committee shall be authorized to

Tenth, that the chairman of the city central committee shall be authorized to

Eleventh, that the chairman of the city central committee shall be authorized to

Twelfth, that the chairman of the city central committee shall be authorized to

Thirteenth, that the chairman of the city central committee shall be authorized to

Fourteenth, that the chairman of the city central committee shall be authorized to

publish a list of the names of the candidates for each office, and that the same shall be published in the Ogden Standard.

Fifteenth, that the chairman of the city central committee shall be authorized to

Sixteenth, that the chairman of the city central committee shall be authorized to

CALEDONIANS HOLD CONCERT AND BALL

The glee club composed of members of the Ogden Caledonian society gave its first concert and dance of the season at Steinway hall last evening. The program proved most entertaining and a large number enjoyed the dancing which followed. The program was as follows:

"Bonnie Doon".....Robert Henderson
Song.....Mrs. Liddell
Song.....George Bala
Recitation.....Mrs. Hunter
Song.....Maggie Henderson
Song.....Frank Carr
Song.....Mrs. Wright
Stories.....Artie Simpson
Song.....Matt Galt
Song.....William Jack

It was definitely decided last night to begin at once preparations for the observance of the Burns anniversary on January 25, and the Caledonian society expects to outline an elaborate program for the event.

POSTAL CLERKS TO GIVE BALL

At a recent meeting of the railway postal clerks of Ogden and Salt Lake it was decided to hold their annual ball on next Thursday evening, September 28, at the Congress academy.

The postal clerks usually hold their annual ball later in the season, but as they anticipate the heavy mails to start sooner than usual this year they decided to give their annual dance earlier in the season. The annual ball of the postal employees has always proven popular and this will no doubt be true of the affair now being planned. The committees in charge are as follows:

Arrangements—John C. Livingston, Frank U. Joesten, Harry O. Milus, Hugh P. Donnelly, Wendell Phillips, Thomas G. Wadsworth.
Refreshments—Herbert H. Snyder, Benjamin W. Davis, Joseph S. Cantwell, Maritz Mortzen, Nick H. Fleming.
Floor—Edward J. Duggan, James J. Gorman, Samuel C. Porter, Leo J. Parry, Leo Winchester, Frank W. Stocker.

Trust's Want to Obey the Laws

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Recent reports to the effect that attorneys for large combinations or corporations and their principals also were hoping for some general understanding with government authorities concerning the application of the anti-trust law and that some of them had gone to the attorney general to ascertain what action, if any, may be necessary, to make them stand right in the eyes of the government, was the subject of much discussion here today.

The Associated Press is in position to state the following as the attitude of the department of justice:

"The position of the attorney general, as stated by him, is that since the decisions of the supreme court in the oil and tobacco cases, to quote the language employed by him in his speech at Battle Creek, Mich.: 'The area of uncertainty in the law has been greatly reduced and the application of the statute in its application to great monopolistic corporations made clear, and this makes it necessary for these combinations to resolve themselves into a number of separate entities, no one of which shall be in itself a combination in restraint of trade or threaten monopoly.'

"How this shall be done is, of course, a separate problem in each case—a problem which in the first instance, those in control of the combinations and their counsel must work out. The law department of the government undertakes to act as a universal counsel for the public. It is preparing to bring before the court all the combinations which appear to be in clear violation of the law. If the courts agree with the government views, they will doubtless follow the precedents set."

ITALIANS IN THE SOUTH.

An Italian paper, published in Buenos Ayres, says there are over 1,000,000 Italians living in that South American republic, and that one in every 1,000 is a millionaire. It adds that on an average the Italians who go to Argentina are better than those who come to the United States.

The statement that there are over 1,000,000 millionaires in Argentina may well be questioned. But there is no doubt at all that the Italian immigrants to that country have prospered exceedingly, but that they have benefited the interesting country as much as themselves. Argentina need

When times are lean and you are camping on the old fields of the eleventh century. It held yesterday that whiskey was one thing, and today something entirely different. We get up in the morning and find ourselves in a deadly predicament. We go to bed and it has become the very Joan of Arc of the laboratory. In a few days we shall know what beer is, and then next month we shall be told that what it seemed to be it is not. At present the fly is being persecuted, like the martyrs of old, and rewards are being offered for him, dead or alive. In another twelve months we expect to see prizes given to those rearing the fattest, trickiest specimens, which will eat up the typhoid fever germs and keep our garbage cans sweet and wholesome.

Judging by the past performance of science, a reversal of judgment will come soon, and the fly will be accorded a honorable place in the scheme of things.—Washington Post.
